THE HOUSES

A HISTORIC RESIDENCE PRESERVES ARTISTIC AND CULTURAL HERITAGE OF IMMENSE VALUE, BUT KEEPING IT ALIVE REQUIRES EXTENSIVE MAINTENANCE AND VISIBILITY THROUGH PROMOTION IN CULTURAL-TOURIST CIRCLES.

Do you want your historic residence to take part in Le Dimore del Quartetto?

In collaboration with ADSI, the Association of Italian Historic Houses, we have created a network of old villas and houses to host young musicians for a period of intensive study and preparation for important artistic engagements, in exchange for a final concert. Through Le Dimore del Quartetto, new experiences happen in unexpected places, bringing new life to underused locations: a new tourist itinerary through a less famous but even more enchanting side of Italy.

THE QUARTETS

A STRING QUARTET IS A MUSICAL CONVERSATION IN FOUR VOICES WHERE RHYTHM, BREATH, SILENCE AND SENSATION MUST ALL BE SHARED AND SYNERGETIC. THIS EXCEPTIONALLY DIFFICULT PROCESS REQUIRES PERIODS OF INTENSE STUDY AND OF LIFE LIVED TOGETHER.

Oftentimes, however, the musicians come from different cities and regions and in their early years together, the most difficult period, they find themselves facing a task that requires them to put in more than they get out. They spend most of their energy resolving logistical issues, to the detriment of their artistic focus. Our network aims to give logistical support to them and to concert organizations dedicated to the formation of new ensembles. The presentation of concerts in unusual locations with a convivial atmosphere draws new audiences to chamber music.

Does your quartet want to join the network of Le Dimore del Quartetto?

In less than two years of activity 60 residences have joined the project, 20 quartets have been selected and 70 concerts have been organized. Born from the willpower and generosity of private contributors who offered their own resources to our project, today Le Dimore del Quartetto needs your help to grow and develop on the international stage.
